

HOUSING POSSIBILITIES WORKSHOPS

Housing workshops are being presented around Queensland to explain the housing options and supports possible under the NDIS, including Specialist Disability Accommodation.

Who this is for:

- NDIS participants and their families
- Housing providers
- Specialist Disability Accommodation providers
- Supported Independent Living (SIL) providers
- NDIS support coordinators
- NDIS allied health professionals
- Community members

Why you should attend:

The information session will help you understand the housing options and supports available under the NDIS. This will include information about Specialist Disability Accommodation.

Presenter:

The workshop will be presented by the Summer Foundation, which was founded in 2006 to resolve the issue of younger people with disability being forced to live in aged care.
